

Program Details

The Brigade will be in Cuba from April 28-May 12, 2017. The 25th Brigade will visit Holguin, Santiago de Cuba and Guantanamo provinces. Keep up to date by checking out our website: canadiannetworkoncuba.ca/brigade

To register please contact the Brigade Coordinator with the contact info on the next panel.

The price of the Brigade is $1,550 for a double room, $1,700 for a single. The prices are higher this year because all stays are in hotels and not a camp, and hotel prices have increased. If the price is a hardship, help with fundraising is available, please contact the coordinator. Moreno Travel is the official travel agent of the Brigade.

This includes: all transportation cost within Cuba, translation and program events, all lodging and food.

It does not include: airfare, medical travel insurance and any personal expenses (snacks, drinks, phone, etc.). Cheaper airfares can be found the sooner registration occurs.

March with Cuban workers on May Day!

A non-profit Project of the Canadian Network on Cuba

The Canadian Network on Cuba (CNC) is committed to friendship and solidarity between the Canadian and Cuban people. The CNC works in partnership to organize the annual brigade with the Cuban Institute for Friendship with the People (ICAP), which is based in Havana.

Volunteer Work
Brigade

to Cuba
April 28 – May 12

Why a Volunteer Work Brigade?

- There is no better way to get to know the Cuban people and society than by working side by side with them.
- Every year thousands of people participate in this extraordinary experience.
- You will be joining a tradition of people from across Canada volunteering in Cuba since the first Brigade in 1992.
- It is an unforgettable experience!

Visit Guantanamo Bay

- The 25th Brigade will visit Guantanamo and participate in an international peace seminar which will go directly across from the illegally occupied US naval base.

Viva Fidel!

- The Brigade will visit Fidel's resting place in Santiago as well as his childhood home in Holguin province.

Our Mandate

- Provide volunteers the opportunity to find out the reality of Cuba without misconceptions
- Promote cultural exchange between Canada and Cuba
- To invite all Canadians to witness Cuba as no tourist has
- To learn first-hand and see the achievements of the Cuban revolution
- To understand the heartfelt commitment of the Cuban people in upholding their national sovereignty, self-determination and socialist system
- To support Cuba against the US blockade and its negative impact on Cubans

Community dance event, Havana

A Lifetime Experience!

- March in May Day side-by-side with Cuban workers.
- Meet delegates from volunteer brigades from over 30 countries.
- Live in hotels while carrying out community work.
- Participate in a full program which will include meeting with social, political and community organizations representing vast sections of the Cuban society.
- Meet with labour unions, student organizations, academics, neighbourhood committees, farmers and many more.
- A Cuba trip is not complete without fun, music, dancing, beaches, amazing culture and history!
