

Danny Glover with Gerardo Hernández

Peoples' Tribunal - Saturday, September 22nd, 2012

8:00 a.m. Registration ($10) - Open to the Public

8:45 a.m. Explanation: Why a Peoples' Tribunal?

Themes: Historical and Political Context of the Case of the Cuban Five
The Legal Process of the Case
What Has Happened Since the Trial

Peoples' Tribunal - Witnesses and Victims will give testimony to a panel of "Magistrates of Conscience".

4:00 p.m. Rally for justice at US Consulate

Peoples' Assembly - Sunday, September 23rd, 2012

10:00 a.m. Introductions and reports from Solidarity and Labour Organizations involved in the struggle for justice and freedom for the Cuban Five.

Address to Assembly from: Cuban Five family members, the Ambassador of the Republic of Cuba and reading and approval of a final Declaration and letter to President Obama.

Afternoon workshops - planning/developing future actions.

4:30 p.m. Adjournment

Noted participants amongst others:

From the U.S.A.: Danny Glover, Actor; Cindy Sheehan, Peace Activist; José Pertierra, renowned Washington Lawyer; Saul Landau, award winning film maker and author; Richard Klugh, lawyer for the Cuban Five.

From Cuba: Adriana Perez and Elizabeth Palmeiro, wives of two of the Cuban Five; Raymundo Navarro, Union Leader and Deputy of the National Assembly of the Peoples' Power.

From the UK: Tony Woodley, Executive Officer for Unite the Union.

From Venezuela: Julian Rivas, Journalist and Editor of El Mundo de Caracas.

From Canada: Livio Di Celmo, brother of Fabio Di Celmo who was killed by a bomb placed by terrorists in a Havana Hotel, masterminded by Posada Carriles.

freethe5peopletribunal.org for more info

Breaking the Silence | Peoples' Tribunal & Assembly | Justice for the Five
Toronto City Hall, September 21st — 23rd, 2012.